

Joining the Dots Working Group

Agenda

Wednesday 3 October 2018, Art West Immersive Space - Room 202

Attending:

Su Baker (Chancellery Engagement)
James Allan (Advancement)
Megan McPherson (Advancement)
Gavan McCarthy (Project team)
Ani Wierenga (Project team)
Sam Williams (VCs office)
Sue Silberberg (Project team),
Ellen Hewitt (Chancellery Engagement)

Apologies:

Siobhan Forbes (Chancellery Engagement)
Sarah Banks (Advancement)
Padmini Sebastian (Chancellery Engagement)

Agenda:

Welcome

Recap on some of the context / challenges / aspirations behind this pilot for University of Melbourne

- Accessing knowledge – knowing what we do
- Keeping track of the University's work in the world – creating an enduring evidence base
- Following the impact of our work
- Telling real people's stories
- Creating engagement
- Building Alumni
- Advancement / reinvestment

International Insights – Kings College, Cambridge

Future Generation Scholarship: Show & Tell

- Exploring capability of the data model and the narrative process

Intelligence & Strategy

- Joining the Dots Working Group: questions and priorities

Practical next steps

- Analysis workshops – contribution to public value
- Next meeting